NEGRO BANDIT KILLED.
Jack Thomas, a negro, of Blytheville, Ark., turned bandit last night, terrorized and robbed passengers aboard a west-bound St. Louis and San Francisco fast train, and in the end was shot to death by A. B. Walton, a railroad watchman.

The train, the St. Louis-Memphis Limited, had just started across the bridge over the Mississippi on the outskirts of Memphis, when Thomas, revolver in hand, came through the doorway which separated the white and colored smoking compartments.

In true frontier style the negro commanded "Hands up!" and without further ceremony a score of hands went up. Then he passed his victims along into the negro section of the car, emptying their pockets as they went along. Four had been divested of their purses and trinkets when Walton appeared on the scene, summoned from the rear platform by a fare collector, who had escaped the eye of the negro.

Walton fired as he entered the coach, the bullet striking the hold-up man just above the heart. He staggered and attempted to aim his weapon, but Walton continued his fire, two other bullets lodging in the negro's body. Thomas toppled when the last bullet struck him, and was dead when the watchman made his way along the aisle through the now panic-stricken passengers. One of Walton's bullets inflicted a slight wound.

The train was stopped at the next station, and the body of Thomas was taken off. A coroner's jury was impaneled on the station platform and Walton exonerated from blame. Then the train proceeded on its way, after the negro's pockets had been stripped of the money and trinkets which were returned to the owners.

DEATH OF REV. DR. WHITE.
Rev. Dr. Henry Martin White, for many years pastor of Loudoun Street Presbyterian Church, of Winchester, and more recently of Opequon Memorial Church, at Kernstown, through whose efforts it was rebuilt, died Tuesday night in Winchester Memorial Hospital after weeks of illness of pneumonia.

He was born in Richmond nearly 75 years ago and was a son of Rev. Dr. William S. White. In the civil war he served as chaplain and soldier with the Richmond Howitzers. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Bianca E. McClanahan, of Roanoke, two sons—Rev. William M. C. White, of China—and one brother, Thomas S. White, of Lexington, Va.

He was engaged in the Presbyterian ministry about 55 years and was an authority on theology, and frequently lectured on the personal character of Stonewall Jackson, an intimate friend.

After The Grippe

"I am much pleased, to be able to write and thank you for what Cardui has done for me," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Gilliland, of Siler City, N. C.

"Last February, I had the Grippe, which left me in bad shape. Before that, I had been bothered with female trouble, for ten years, and nothing seemed to cure it.

"At last, I began to take Cardui. I have taken only three bottles, but it has done me more good than all the doctors or than any other medicine I ever took."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

For the after-effects of any serious illness, like the Grip, Cardui is the best tonic you can use.

It builds strength, steadies the nerves, improves the appetite, regulates irregularities and helps bring back the natural glow of health.

Cardui is your best friend, if you only knew it. Think of the thousands of ladies whom Cardui has helped! What could possibly prevent it from helping you?

Remember you cannot get the benefit of the Cardui ingredients in any other medicine, for they are not for sale in any drug store except in the Cardui bottle. Try Cardui.
